The Street Stocks and 4 Cylinders have 4 points nights left to figure out the champions in their respective divisions.

“Flyin” Brian Mullen did just what his name implies last Sunday as he took home the IMCA Modified feature win. With the win he is now 28 points ahead of Jason Czarapata.

Brandon Czarapata picked up his first win of the season from the front row in the IMCA Stockcars. Kyle Fredericks holds the point lead by 21 points over Shawn Wagner.

In only his second night racing in Seymour on the year, Travis Van Straten dominated the IMCA Northern Sportmod feature. In the closest of the IMCA divisions, Eric Arneson holds a 6 point lead over both Brad Lautenbach and Brad Theys.

Mert Summers picked up his first win of the season by a bumper over Gary Kasperek in the Street Stocks. Dan Gracyalny is the man on top right now by 12 points over Jerry Winkler.

4th place man in points, Calvin Stueck picked up the 4 Cylinder main event last week. Sam Ambrosius holds a narrow 1 point advantage over both Justin Vannieuwenhoven and Brian Johnson.
