This Sunday Night May 27th, Late Models return to Seymour Super Speedway. The regular five divisions will also be in action for a regular point night. Victory Sign will be the headlining sponsor. Racing gets started at 6 p.m.

This is the second time the Late Models have seen Seymour in 2012. The Late Models also ran at the April 1st Spring Thaw. Picking up the win was Jim Schmidt from Cleveland, WI. Schmidt was able to outlast a hard charging Nick Anvelink.

Eric Arneson captured his second win of the weekend last Sunday in the IMCA Modifieds. An impressive last two weeks has saw Arneson in victory lane 3 times in his inaugural season. Mike Mullen lowered the gap on Jason Czarapata last week in the standings; beating him by one position. Mullen trails Czarapata by 9 points.

Brandon Czarapata will be shooting for 3 feature wins in a row in the IMCA Stockcar division. Czarapata has 4 wins on the season at the speedway, one was the Spring Thaw. Czarapata has a commanding 16 point lead over Shawn Wagner after the first month of points racing.

Jake Solin won his first career IMCA Northern Sportmod feature at Seymour last week. He made the long trip from White Lake a successful one. The top 5 in the standing are separated by a mere 6 points. Jeremy Cota is in search of his first career championship.

Gary Kasperek has remained perfect on the season winning 4 consecutive features. The Street Stock standings have Kasperek leading Phil Hiles by 9 marks.

Calvin Stueck won a dominating 4 Cylinder main event last week. Although Stueck won last weeks battle; Jeff Behm is ahead in the standings war by 10 points.
