January 22- N.E.W. DIRT has been busy the past couple months gearing up for their 30th Anniversary season promoting the weekly Sunday night racing programs at the Seymour Speedway.

Tom Schmidt was elected President of the club at the October meeting and his first order of business was the track. In early November, the track recieved extensive grading work, loosening the track and re-establishing the proper banking the turns. Fencing was also redone in the back pit area. Meetings have also been busy setting the 2013 schedule, with many new ideas and promotions being planned.

You can check this website as it will now be continuously updated.

You can also attend the monthly club meetings held on the first Monday of every month at the Crystal Springs Golf Club at 8 PM

You can also contact Tom Schmidt at 920-843-1345 for more information.
