Seymour- Sunday, August 31- 8:30 AM- It is here...The final race of the regular racing season happens tonight at the Seymour Speedway. The final leg of the Summer Holiday Classic Series, featuring our 5 regular season divisions, plus the final run for the Spectator Eliminators.

The weather looks to be perfect, and with the day off tomorrow for Labor Day, bring everyone along for the great racing and stay for the free beer and corn in the pit afterward/

This is also the final point night for all 5 divisions. The Budweiser IMCA Modified and IMCA Sport Mod s are close to being final if all drivers check in to run tonight. The Coors Light IMCA Stock Cars, Turbo Blue Street Stocks and 4 Cylinders will all be determined following the racing action on the 1/3 mile Clay Oval.

A reminder, the Late Models will NOT be here tonight. All other divisions will be running for the Holiday Classic increase purse.

Also all admissions will be the same as during the season.

Racing will start at 5:30 PM...SHARP!!!

The pit opens at 3 PM

Late sign in at 4:30.

4 Cylinders

Spectator Eliminators

Following the racing tonight, all are invited to the pit area for FREE beer and Corn from the Club to THANK YOU for your support all season long.

The final race of the season will be next SATURDAY night, September 6.

It will be an open show for our 5 regular divisions. It is an added race run for all the drivers and fans that do NOT go to Boone. No other tracks are running next Saturday night and it will be the final regular program before the Fall Special season starts.

N.E.W. DIRT would like to THANK everyone for choosing to make the Seymour Speedway part of your racing weekend.

We hope to see you tonight and next Saturday to close out the 2014 racing season here at the Seymour Speedway.
